On 6 August, the Openness of Local Government Bodies Regulations 2014 came into force. These regulations allow any person attending a local government meeting, which is open to the public, to take photographs, film and audio-record the proceedings and report on the meeting, including reporting using social media.

The Council already permits photography, filming and recording in meetings which are held in public and we are updating public information, the Council's Constitution and our existing protocol to reflect these new regulations.

Members of the public will also now be able to access documents relating to decisions taken by officers acting under powers delegated to them by the Council, a committee, sub-committee or joint committee. This will require officers to record in writing certain decisions and make these available for publication.
